Guest Speaker Mandy Hager

© David Hamilton

Mandy Hager is a writer of fiction, predominately for young adults, although a shift in 2017 saw her publish "Heloise", a historical novel based on the life of 12th century nun Heloise d'Argenteuil, famed lover of philosopher Peter Abelard. Mandy has won many literary awards including the 2013 Katherine Mansfield Menton Fellowship. The prize provides for a $75,000 award and the opportunity to take up residency for at least six months in Menton, a port town on the French Riviera and is one of New Zealand's most long-standing and prestigious literary awards. While on the Mansfield Fellowship Mandy was able to research the background and history of Heloise and Abelard. It took a year to write the first draft of Heloise in first person narrative and as long again to rewrite and edit in third person. Mandy read an engrossing extract from "Heloise" this brought to life her excellent prose style. No doubt a few members will buy the book.

Heloise d'Argenteuil and Peter Abelard

5 minute Talk by Daryn Dore

Daryn was born in 1970 in Southland. By coincidence his parents Albert and Heather were attending the meeting tonight.

Daryn is accident prone having had teeth smashed, a severe cricket ball to the head injury and survived a 12m fall. The same surgeon repaired him for the latter 2 injuries 13 years apart.

Daryn trained as an electrician and has wide experience in domestic, industrial and security wiring. He spent a lot of time working in Invercargill jail. In 2002 Daryn became interested in helicopter flying and has worked extensively piloting overseas, he came to Kapiti in 2008 to help Helipro after the loss of 3 people in a crash between a light aircraft and a helicopter over Paraparaumu.

Daryn now works for Otis Elevators and also is involved with Kapiti Aero Club. Daryn ended by talking about his experiences working inside jails and how effective jail is (or isn't) as a deterrent. "Some inmates are only reformed by old age"
